

JOSH HEMSATH

19670 N Mitkof Loop | Eagle River, AK 99577
101 Grant Chamberlain Dr., Apt 2A | Bozeman, MT 59715
406/570.0540 | josh.hemsath@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE

To integrate my leadership skills, visual communication background, and passion for helping others into a position that allows me to develop further as a community advocate.

EDUCATION

- Enrolled as a senior in Community Health with an emphasis in programming and policy at Montana State University – Bozeman.
- Graduated May 28, 2004 from Chugiak High School in Eagle River, Alaska.

EXPERIENCE

2008- State of Montana, Department of Health and Human Services
Member, Methamphetamine Action Team

2008- Forward Montana; Member, Board of Directors

2007- TerraGraphica, Freelance Designer

2004-2007 The ASMSU Exponent newspaper
2007 – Managing Editor, Graphic Designer
2005 – Features Editor

2005-2006 Gray Line of Alaska/Holland America Line
2006 – Documentation and Inventory Supervisor
2005 – Receptionist and Customer Sales & Service Host

July 2004 U.S. Senate, Senator Ted Stevens' office
Intern

2002-2004 Blood Bank of Alaska
2003-2004 – Design Assistant
2002 – Donor Caller

HONORS

- Fourth place in Extemporaneous Speaking – Domestic Topics at the 2004 Alaska Scholastic Activities Association (ASAA) State Drama, Debate, and Forensics Championship
- Eagle Scout with Bronze Palm Award, 2002
- 2002 Outstanding Youth in Philanthropy, Association of Fundraising Professionals—Alaska Chapter

OTHER

- President (2006-2009), Queer-Straight Alliance, Montana State University (est. 1978)
- Founding president of the Civic Debate League club at Montana State University

REFERENCES & PORTFOLIO

A list of employers and personal references is available on request. A partial portfolio is also available on request.